

Georgian College's Board of Governors Awards for exemplary contributions to the college.

In a ceremony at the Barrie campus on April 27 2015, Board Chair Chris Gariepy presented the Board of Governors' the Distinguished Alumni Award, to Captain Seann O'Donoghue, a Marine Technology-Navigation graduate.

O'Donoghue, Captain of the CWB MARQUIS on the Great Lakes, takes a vested interest in teaching and mentoring Georgian cadets in school and when on his ship. He is an influential leader who is a strong advocate of the Great Lakes shipping industry, Georgian's Marine training and the Marine Emergency Duties Training and Research Centre planned for the Owen Sound campus. He also teaches part-time in the college's corporate marine training programs, passing on his vast knowledge and expertise to the industry's current and future leaders.

Capt. Seann O'Donoghue, centre, receives the Georgian College Board of Governors' Distinguished Alumni Award from Board Chair Chris Gariepy, left, and Georgian College President and CEO MaryLynn West-Moynes.

Source: georgiancollege.ca/news/georgian-college-board-of-governors-honours